

5-4-M/36

The Embassy of Peru in Chile presents its compliments to the Honourable Interim Secretariat of the Preparatory Conference for the Establishment of the Commission of the South Pacific Regional Management Organization and has the honour to refer to Note No. 1246 submitted by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Chile on 30 January 2012

In relation to the reference in the Chilean Note to treaties between Chile and Peru, the Government of Peru must emphasize that there are no maritime delimitation treaties between both countries. In addition, the Government of Peru highlights that the matter of the maritime delimitation between Peru and Chile is a pending issue, which has been submitted to the jurisdiction of the International Court of Justice that will decide in accordance with international law.

The Embassy of Peru in Chile avails itself of the opportunity to renew to the Honourable Interim Secretariat of the Preparatory Conference for the Establishment of the Commission of the South Pacific Regional Management Organization the assurances of its highest and most distinguished consideration.

Santiago, 31 January 2012

To the Honourable
Interim Secretariat of the
Preparatory Conference for the Establishment of the Commission of the South Pacific Regional Management Organization
